

Steel—Doing It Right®

Available in Two Formats

Are you undecided about attending an instructor-led seminar or using the self-study format?

Below are some points for your consideration.

Instructor-Led Seminar Two days	Self-Study Format Eight hours on one CD
Same content and companion workbook included	Same content and companion workbook included
Material taught by two industry experts using PowerPoint presentation	Material organized/produced by professional instruction company and presented via CD
Opportunity to ask instructors for clarification	Capability to replay sections for reinforcement
Opportunity to ask instructors for advice	Less expensive without travel costs
Opportunity to network with participants from around the country	Flexible format. Learn when it is convenient – at one sitting or divided into module sections.
Dynamic environment with other involved professionals gathered together	CDs can be viewed by unlimited people and multiple times.
Work with other participants on an estimating exercise to put into practice what was taught.	User self motivation helpful for successful completion